

Industry	Static Systems Group plc Manufacturing
Summary of the activities of your business/organisation	Static Systems Group plc is a leading provider of advanced alarm and communication systems within healthcare and prison environments. The company is also an established name in the provision of sophisticated fire detection systems for large public and commercial buildings. Established in 1964, we are a privately owned company employing over 200 employees. All aspects of the business process, including research and development, system design, manufacture and production, sales and post-contract support, is undertaken at our headquarters in Wombourne, South Staffordshire.
Number of employees	210
Routes in to your business/sector	The company is offering Advanced Level 3 Technical Apprenticeships (3-4 years duration), providing an invaluable opportunity to work in many departments throughout the business, developing an understanding of electrical and electronic communication systems, as well as an understanding of how different departments work and interact together. Academic qualifications will be gained via day release, typically at Dudley College: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> EAL Level 2 Advanced Manufacturing Engineering (Foundation Competence) EAL Level 3 Extended Diploma in Advanced Manufacturing Engineering (Development Knowledge) EAL Level 3 Diploma in Advanced Manufacturing Engineering (Development Competence)
Opportunities	Two Technical Apprenticeship vacancies are currently available.
Location/s:	Wombourne, South Staffordshire.
Website /Contact	Miranda King, Human Resources Manager www.staticsystems.co.uk